The White Bridge

- an architectural landmark of Špindlerův Mlýn, which connects both banks of the Labe River. The bridge was built in 1911 as a link between the two estates. The left bank was under the administration of the Morzin's family (nowadays Špindlerův Mlýn) and the right bank belonged to the Jilemnice manor (part of Bedřichov). The arch bridge, which has no central supporting pillar, reaches a height of 3.65 m, is 27.6 m long and 4.84 m wide.

17

Svatý Petr
- the oldest part of Špindlerův Mlýn and a valley with idyllic views. The copper and silver mines are now closed. The educational track "Hornická stezka", which leads through the valley of St. Peter to Dlouhý důl, reminds of mining history.

18

Medvědín

Plán
- the highest point, 1 098 m above sea level in Sv. Petr ski area, that can be easily reached by the 6-seater chairlift. In addition to skiing lovers, the lift can also be used by cross-country skiers, who can, for example, follow "Krkonoše Magistrála" (The Main Krkonoše Trail) along the Krkonoše Mts. ridges. Skiareál Sv. Petr is the venue for a number of major sporting events.

19

Labská přehrada

- technical monument, named after the settlement of the same name and built in 1910 - 1916, serving primarily as protection against floods. It is the uppermost stage of the system of water works on the Elbe River, which captures most of the snow water in the central part of the Krkonoše Mountains. Since 1994 a small hydroelectric power plant has been working in the dam.

20

Krkonošská magistrála

- 80 km long ski trail over the Krkonoše Mountains, it leads from Harrachov to Žacléř. The Main Krkonoše Trail is marked in red and is divided into several stages. The entire 80 km trail is designed for physically fit and experienced cross-country skiers, others should choose only some parts of it. The Main Krkonoše Trail can be entered in Spindleruv Mlyn as well, in Medvedin Mt. area or in St. Peter.

22

Horní Mísečky

- the highest mountain village in the Krkonoše Mountains. It was built on the slopes of the Medvedin Mt. at an altitude of 1000 m above sea level. The Masaryk's Mountain Road leads from Horní Mísečky to the Zlaté návrší hill and to Vrbatova bouda.

23

Hanč and Vrbata Memorial

- it is located above Vrbatova bouda and recalls the tragic event of March 24, 1913, when a Czech racer Bohumil Hanč and his friend Václav Vrbata died during a 50 km ski race in a snowstorm. The story of Mr. Hanč and Mr. Vrbata became a symbol of a great heroism and friendship.

24

Špindlerova bouda

- starting point for hiking. Trip destinations can be e.g. the Sněžka Mt., Luční bouda, Karpacz, Kowary, Petrova bouda, Sněžné jámy, the Labe River spring and others. The public transport bus runs from Špindlerův Mlýn to Špindlerova bouda all year round.

25

Sněžné jámy

- huge glacial cirques on the northern and eastern slopes of the Krkonoše Mountains. Malá Sněžná jáma (550 m long, 400 m wide and 300 m deep) is separated from the Velká Sněžná jáma (800 m long, 600 m wide and 300 m high) by a rocky ridge. Sněžné jámy is an example of an alpine landscape with many rare plants. There are glacial lakes at the bottom.

Špindlerův Mlýn

A small mountain town, which is a popular tourist center and an important winter sports center not only in the Krkonoše Mountains, but also in the whole Czech Republic. All year round climatic conditions, 710 - 850 m above sea level and convenient location can satisfy visitors seeking sport, hiking, active rest and relaxation. Come and stay!
